FREIGHT DEPOT TO BE ERECTED ON OLD SITE.

Work to Be Begun as Soon
As Contract Can be Let.

FINE BRICK BUILDING.

Will be Steam Heated and
Supplied with All Modern Conveniences.

It comes from an authoritative source that the L. & N. Railroad will at once rebuild the freight depot on the old site. The question of constructing an additional track by a different route is still under consideration, but if the line is shortened in that way it will be for through freights only and the present entrance to the city will remain as it is at now. The depot is to be 150 by 70 feet, a brick structure with two story offices fronting on Ninth Street. It will have a cellar under the office portion and will be steam heated.

Mr. Geo. E. Gary, representing The Forbes Manufacturing Co., is now in Louisville in conference with the L. & N. officials and hopes to secure the contract and begin work in ten days.

DEASON CASE.

Motions Made for New Trials in Several Cases.

The suit of H. W. Deason against the L. & N. railroad company was on trial in circuit court Thursday and Friday and went to the jury late yesterday afternoon. Deason sued the company for $5,000 damages. He stated in his petition that on the night of April 30, 1904, he was a passenger on the accommodation and came from Pembroke to this city. He further alleged that the train stopped and then suddenly started up again, causing him to fall, and that his right shoulder was dislocated and he was otherwise injured. He filed the suit last August. The attorney for Charles Finch, one of the Pembroke negroes under life sentence for murder, has asked for a new trial for his client, but the court has not yet passed upon the matter.

A new trial has also been asked for in the case of Dove Cunningham, col., convicted of grand larceny and given two years.

The defendant's attorney, in the suit of Miss Annie May Brasher against the T. C. railroad company, filed a motion for a new trial. Miss Brasher was given a verdict of $500 damages, one half the amount sued for.

SUMMER HEAT

But Mercury Dropped 44 Degrees in Short While.

The mercury registered 82 degrees Tuesday, and it climbed nearly as high again Wednesday morning, but in the afternoon there was a decided drop and by Thursday morning the frost line was reached. There were several prostrations from heat in some of the northern cities this week, the hottest weather ever recorded in March since the Weather Bureau was established, in 1872, being experienced. In this city the hottest March day previous to Tuesday, in many years, was March 22, 1894, when the mercury reached 77. According to the record, which antedates by twenty years the records of the weather bureau, the season of 1854 was the hottest summer ever known in this section of the country. In that year the mercury registered up in the eighties in March, and in April reached 100 degrees. During the summer following, for seventy days, the minimum temperature was 90 and the average 97 degrees.

Association On This Market.

A FIRST-CLASS MAN.

Has Devoted His Whole Life
To Tobacco Business In
All Branches.

Mr. Chas. F. Jarrett has accepted the position of salesman for Hopkinsville, tendered him by the Dark Tobacco Association. His whole life has been spent in the tobacco business, as grower, buyer and broker. He knows the business from the plant-bed to the foreign market. His acceptance will give strength and confidence to the organization throughout Christian and adjoining counties, because everybody knows that he knows how to grade and classify the tobacco and is capable of dealing with the problem of selling it with rare intelligence and business sagacity.

NEW ADDITION

To Southside Residence Portion of the City.

Mr. John H. Bell, Jr., has bought from the heirs of the late Robt. Knight a beautiful tract of ground on South Virginia street for residence property. He will at once plot the ground and open it as an addition to the city. The deal was closed Thursday and yesterday he sold one of the front lots to Mr. J. W. Stowe, who will build a fine house this season. The property is in one of the choicest residence sections of the city and is in every respect desirable.

Mr. J. M. Grace's dwelling, about one mile North of the city, was destroyed by fire Thursday afternoon. Nearly all of the contents was also consumed. When the flames were discovered the rear of the house was ablaze and the supposition is that the building caught from the kitchen flue.
